

Internship Funding Opportunity for Undergraduate Students Majoring in the Arts or Humanities University of Delaware

The newly established Christopher and Stacey Mrozinski Internship Fund supports undergraduate students majoring in the arts or humanities. Funding up to $5,000 is provided to undergraduate students who have secured an internship for Summer 2020. Support may include costs associated with travel to the internship venue (mileage* and/or transportation costs) and housing expenses, along with a modest stipend during the internship period. Special consideration will be given to students who have secured an unpaid internship.

To apply, submit the following materials to Kim Reimer (reimerk@udel.edu) by Thursday, March 26, 2020. Decisions will be announced by April 15, 2020.

A complete application should be submitted as a single PDF and include:

1. A 250-word description of the internship opportunity (where, duration, and duties) and how it relates to your professional development.
2. A budget request that clearly articulates financial need during internship term and outlines funds necessary to participate in the internship.
3. A one-page resume.

A letter of recommendation from a UD faculty member must be sent separately to Kim Reimer (reimerk@udel.edu) with the student's name in the subject line.

Successful applicants will be required to submit a brief report of the internship with up to three photos within thirty days of the conclusion of the internship (details to follow).
